

Winners Are Announced

Winners of the first monthly Master Point bridge game were announced recently by Bob Christie, the club director. They were Virginia Fisher, E. K. Moore, Lorraine Daniel, and E. F. Cross.

Bridge games are held weekly at the YWCA in Torrance, 2320 Carson Street, on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 8 p.m. as well as on Wednesday afternoons at 12 p.m. The public is invited to enjoy the thrill of competing against some of their home town bridge players, and of comparing their game against that of their friends and neighbors.

Visits Father

George Clay, governor of the Torrance Loyal Order of the Moose, left Monday for a ten-day visit with his father in Oklahoma.

On Vacation

Mrs. John Knight and daughters, Susan and Alice, 22719 Susanna, left Wednesday for Willows, Calif., where they will spend a month visiting relatives.

Guild Meeting

Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will meet Wednesday, July 8, at 2 p.m. in the guild hall with Mrs. N. D. Smith, president, in charge. During a social hour refreshments will be served by Mrs. Frank Lane and Mrs. Walter Stanton, hostesses.

eight hours a day, six days a week and take care of our apartment, do all the laundry and cooking. Three nights a week he insists I bow in a mixed league and on Sunday I teach two classes as well as sing in the choir because he wants me to.

He only works five days a week, but refuses to shop for groceries or do any housework. He naps while I get supper and sleeps an hour longer in the morning since he drives to work and I take the bus.

I'm dead tired all the time, yet he expects me to come running whenever he gets a glint in his eye. What can I do?—BEAT BABE

Dear Beat: Your husband is getting away with murder and you're a sap to put up with it. Tell him either you quit your job or he pitches in and helps with the housework and shopping.

You need rest more than exercise. Why not go along to the bowling alley as a spectator? Better get some changes made or you'll be tired for the rest of your life.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How to Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Merit Award Presented to Five Women

Temple Menorah Sisterhood announces the presentation of the Woman of Merit Awards.

Since this was the first time such an award was officially made, the Sisterhood honored five deserving women who had served conscientiously throughout the year.

Receiving the awards were Mrs. Mark Bennett, Mrs. Arnold Cowan, Mrs. Ben Kaufman, Mrs. Henry Rappaport, and Mrs. Sydney Siegel.

The ceremony took place at the installation luncheon held recently at the Polynesian Restaurant. The surprise presentations were given by Mrs. Sam Katz, who has in the past, received an unofficial award.

The awards were beautiful plaques, originally designed by Mrs. Stella Benmayor.

Appointed

Mrs. Dale Harter has been appointed second vice president of the Torrance Lioness club. Mrs. Harter will succeed Mrs. Warren Hamilton, who, with her family, is moving to Ohio.

WITH BEST WISHES . . . Mrs. Virginia Jenkins, retiring Regent of the Women of the Moose, Torrance chapter, hands the gavel of obligation to Mrs. Elsie Smith (right), newly installed Regent. Ceremonies were held at the Moose lodge last week. (Portrait by Seeman)

Moose Women Install In Colorful Rites

Newly-elected officers of the Torrance chapter, Women of the Moose, were installed in an impressive ceremony Saturday evening at the Moose Hall. Joyce Clay, installing regent, and Peggy Peacock, installing guide, wearing their College of Regents' caps and gowns conducted the installation. Vicky Stiles, Chaplain, gave the opening prayer and Gladys Groop was chairman for the installation.

Given their obligations were Elsie Smith, senior regent; Virginia Jenkins, senior graduate regent; Lillian Dixon, junior regent; Lulu Sallamon, chaplain; Virginia Olson, guide; Ruby Marley, assistant guide; Joyce Clay, recorder; Ruth Wright, treasurer; Alona Chaney, Argus; Letha Coffee, sentinel; and Lucile Myers, pianist.

The men of lodge 785 served as receiving officers. Each new officer was escorted to the altar by the guide, Peggy Peacock. The escort team then escorted them to their new office. As the chaplain approached her station, the team stood with folded arms while Carl Fisher sang "The Lord's Prayer." An arch of ivy decorated each station. On the escort team were Velma Scanlin, Bart Styles, Carolyn Hall, Tom Jenkins, Cora Bowers, Bill Olson, Helen Denton and Joe Marley.

Introduction and exchange of gifts followed the acceptance of the gavel by the new Senior Regent Elsie Smith. A chapter ring was presented to the new Senior Graduate Regent by her co-workers. Brownie Troop 2461, sponsored by the chapter, presented the new Regent with wall plaques.

Attending the party were Sharla Acosta, Mary Pat Oakes, Nadine and Regina Smith, Lynn Brunell, Arturo and Ricardo Cordova, J. C. and Ricky Oakes.

pastor, officiated at the marriage and nuptial mass. Immediately following the mass, the bride walked to the altar of the Blessed Virgin and placed her bouquet there.

A reception was held at the parish hall where the bride's table was decorated with garlands of orchids, gardenias and satin bows. The wedding cake was topped by a miniature bridal couple with the bridegroom in full army uniform.

Assisting with the reception was Mrs. Lee Moran, Mrs. Frank Forrester, Mrs. William Meisel, Miss Rosemary Orsini, and Mr. William Lyndon. Miss Lucy Haight was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds spent the weekend at a mountain resort. They will make a honeymoon trip to New York by way of Chicago enroute to Fort Drum, New York, where they will reside while Pvt. Doyle serves there with the United States Army.

The bride was graduated from Nativity parochial school and was graduated from Torrance High school last month. Her husband was graduated from St. Margaret Mary's parochial school in Lomita and attended Narbonne High school. He is now in the U.S. Army Division of Military Police.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Nina Hedberg of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McNeil of Torrance.

Wesleyan Guild Meets

Wesleyan Service Guild held its regular dinner meeting on June 16 at the First Methodist Church.

Following the dinner, the business meeting and program were held in the Friendship room of the church.

The meeting was conducted by the newly installed president, Mrs. Katherine Baker. Mrs. Gynnie Jones, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and Mrs. Chelcia Shelby gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Sara Hogue, co-ordinator, gave an account of the activities of the W.S.C.

Mrs. Sara Hogue explained the functions of the Blood Bank for the church and asked for volunteer blood donations by the members of the Guild.

Mrs. Clina Holland announced that the Laboratory Church School will begin Aug. 3 and continue through Aug. 7.

Mrs. Katherine Baker introduced Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stock to the members and they showed slides of Pakistan where their son is serving as a missionary.

There were 47 members and guests present.

Smiths Hosts

Entertaining a group of friends with a seafood dinner at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes recently were Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Smith of Torrance. The guests in the "Porpoise Room" included Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DeVecchi of San Pedro and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Norberg of Hollywood Riviera.

Michigan Guests

A tropical theme prevailed when Mr. and Mrs. George E. Eberhardt of the Hollywood Riviera recently entertained with an authentic South Sea island dinner at The Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance. Their guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Koch of Lansing, Mich.

A Vacation

Mrs. Barton Tatum and Mrs. Joseph Boylan spent last week at Cresline swimming, horseback riding and fishing.

Gamma Phis Fete Father At Benefit

Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae of the South Bay combined Father's Day festivities with their annual charity event, benefiting the Good Samaritan Hospital's obstetrical wing, Sunday at the Greek Theatre. Gamma Phis and their guests heard the talented Victor Borge, who has pleased worldwide audiences for many years. An exceptionally versatile entertainer, the incomparable Borge displayed his multi-faceted personality, not only as a wit both ridiculous and perceptive but as a pianist of merit. The 100 piece Greek Theatre Orchestra was also part of the program.

Men came in for special consideration at the event as a fitting climax to their day. Hospitality Chairman of the Intercity Council, Mrs. Virgil Haws of Hawthorne had arranged the presentation of pink carnation boutonnières to the men by college girls who acted as flower girls for the evening.

Mrs. Robert Hoar, premier chairman, introduced Mr. V. John Krehbiel, Gamma Phi father of the year, who presented the annual check to Dr. Gordon Knight Smith, Chief of Staff of the Good Samaritan Hospital.

As in years past, members gathered prior to the performance and enjoy a picnic supper on the greensward surrounding the beautiful open air Greek Theatre in Griffith Park.

South Bay members who joined in the picnic included Col. and Mrs. W. J. Schindler, Messrs. and Mmes. Wiley K. Peterson, Thomas F. Day, H. W. Jones, Larry Burr C. James Reeves, Richard Stewart, Henry Maribon, R. A. Hickson, Robert F. Pattison, Eugene Stokes, Virgil Hawks, Jerry McLeith and C. William Bradshaw, Jr.

A Farewell

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Benton, 2107 Gramercy, entertained at an open house Sunday honoring their son, Max David Benton, who leaves Saturday for the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn.

Max was graduated from Torrance High in 1958 and last year attended UCLA.

Over 100 friends attended the afternoon party during which a buffet luncheon was served.
